

Giving Alliance

By joining the Glen Canyon Conservancy's Giving Alliance, you will support Glen Canyon National Recreation Area in the following ways:

PROTECTING THE ENVIRONMENT

- Providing ranger-led environmental education to area 4th graders, culminating with a boat ride on Lake Powell.
- Graffiti removal.
- Funding the analysis of grasses within the park to determine which species are native and culturally important to native tribes.
- Dark Sky initiatives and programs.

STRENGTHENING COMMUNITIES

- Facilitating tribal consultations between the National Park Service and tribal elders for collaborative park planning and discussion.
- Supporting the Lechee Youth Internship Program, where native youth receive a closer look into park service careers.
- Funding Love Your Lake cleanups, Annual Volunteer Appreciation, National Fossil Day, etc.
- Co-hosting the Glen Canyon Lecture Series.

PRESERVING HISTORY AND CULTURE

- Facilitating professional analysis of archeological objects and supporting paleontological research.
- Funding the educational Glen Canyon Visitor Center in Page which houses the historic 3-D topographical map of the region and serves as a small interpretive center, informing visitors about the people, geology, water and recreation of Glen Canyon.

How to Partner

As a Giving Alliance Partner, you can participate in one or more of the following ways:

TAKE GUEST DONATIONS

- Opt-In: Guests are asked if they would like to make a donation during checkout.
- Opt-Out: A donation is included on the bill but can be removed at the guest's request.
- Round-Up: Guests are asked if they want to round up their purchase total to the nearest dollar, with the extra amount donated to the Conservancy.

PARTICIPATE IN CAUSE MARKETING

- Product Tie-Ins: A portion of sales from specific products or services is donated to GCC.
- Experience-Based Partnerships: Tours or outdoor activities that include a portion of proceeds benefiting GCC.

CONTRIBUTE DIRECTLY

- Percentage Donations: Businesses agree to donate a percentage of their revenue during peak tourism months or from specific products/services.
- Event Sponsorships: The business sponsors GCC events, gaining visibility and associating their brand with conservation.

To help you effectively promote the work of the GCC and encourage support from your visitors, we offer ready-to-use promotional materials, such as window clings and flyers explaining the program.

These items can be used in business entrances, shop windows, front desk areas or wherever makes sense for your organization.

Partnering with GCC through the Glen Canyon Giving Alliance Program will help you strengthen your customer basis, differentiate your business from others and strengthen your impact in the Glen Canyon/Page area.

Founded in 1986, Glen Canyon Conservancy (GCC) partners with the National Park Service to support Glen Canyon National Recreation Area and Rainbow Bridge National Monument. Through education, outreach and visitor services, GCC plays a vital role in connecting people with the history, science and natural beauty of this remarkable region. We provide interpretive sales and visitor support at Carl Hayden Visitor Center, Navajo Bridge Interpretive Center, the Glen Canyon Visitor Center and online.
